A COUNTRY FULL OF DISHES

Colombia is a beautiful country with lots of different regions and different food traditions. Here are four typical Colombian dishes:

Cholao: This is a traditional dish from Valle del Cauca. It has strawberries, bananas, pineapple, mango and other fruits, with ice and condensed milk.

Ajiaco: This dish is from Cundinamarca and Boyacá. It is a soup and has different kinds of potatoes, corn, chicken and some herbs.

Bandeja Paisa: This is a traditional dish from the coffee region. It has rice, beans, beef, pork, avocado and an egg.

Lechona: This traditional dish from Tolima is a stuffed pig. There is a mixture of rice, peas and pork inside the pig.

Different cities have different dishes, so when you travel, make sure to try some food from the place.

Part 5: Reading:

In terms of grammar usage, there are some rules to use the articles (a-an). First, when we use the A, it means that the noun we are going to describe starts by a consonant. But, we must take care because, when the sound of the noun has a vowel with double sound, as in University, uniform, we also use A article.

When we want to use the article AN , we use it when the first letter of the noun starts by a vowel as in : owl, egg, ostrich.

In the third case we can use ANY , we use it before nouns to identify or unknown quantities or an unlimited entity. Also, we can use it to express negative statements.
