

COLEGIO NACIONES UNIDAS I.E.D.

Aprobado según Resoluciones 10-085 DE MARZO 20 DE 2009

FORMACIÓN INTEGRAL DE LÍDERES EMPRENDEDORES COMPETENTES, CON PRINCIPIOS DEMOCRÁTICOS, TECNOLÓGICOS, CULTURALES Y DEPORTIVOS
"EDUCACIÓN, CIENCIA, CULTURA Y DEPORTE PARA TRASCENDER"

11th GRADE WORKSHOP THIRD TRIMESTER 2024

SUBMIT DATE: NOVEMBER 13TH 2024

Part 1: definitions:

1. Write 3 examples of the third conditional
2. Translate " if i had got a gold medal, i would have been happy.
3. In the third conditional, the main verb is in tense?
4. Write the past participle of the verbs: buy- speak-swim-fight
5. Translate: si yo hubiera entrenado para la carrea, yo la habría ganado.
6. What is the meaning of the next past participle verbs: stolen-thought-met-known

Part 2: plates: describe the next image before Reading the text.

from the next paragraph answer questions 7 to 12

Nicky is studying Law at University. 'I chose to study Law because I want to be a detective or a lawyer', she says. 'When I was young I always enjoyed watching detective programmes on TV. I imagined solving the crimes myself and helping the victims. I also loved watching films with court room scenes.' Many children drop out of school where Nicky lives, so graduating from High School was a proud moment for her. She says her mum always motivated her to work hard at school. 'When I was at school I was good at History. It was my favourite subject.' If you're good at History, you'll find studying Law similar in many ways. I'd also say Maths has helped me a lot. I think about Law questions a bit like I do Maths questions, identifying the problem, applying the formula and finding the answer. Everyone knows Law degrees involve a lot of reading. It's true, Law students are always the last ones to leave the library! You also need to have a good memory and a good analytical brain. It's lots of hard work and many hours studying, but we still find time to have fun. I hope to work for a Criminal Law company when I leave university. One day, I plan to have my own company!

7. What does Nicky want to do when she's older?
8. What first interested her in this career?
9. What was her favourite subject at school?

10. What subject does she say is helpful for law?
11. Why do law students spend a lot of time in the library?
12. What two skills does she say you need to study law?

part: 3: conversation:

from questions 13 to 18 create a conversation based on the phrases given.

13. What is a synonym for the phrase: “ a good analytical brain”
 14. What is the best title for it?
- Complete the next phrases with the correct form of the verb:

15. My sister enjoys _____ to different countries.
16. I don't want to _____ to university.
17. What subject did you choose _____?
18. My father hopes _____ a new job soon.

Part: 4 grammar rules: take into account the next phrases and according to the grammar rules complete them.

19. I can't imagine _____ in an office all day.
20. I love _____ the piano.
21. Organize : criminal- law- a- for- hope-i- work- to – Company
22. Organize: own-company- have- to-i – plan – my
23. Translate into spanish the phrase: i loved watching movies.

Part: 5: Reading.

When we use the adverbs of manner we refer to those words which can modify the base structure of an adjective, besides, those kind of words are use to explain or to emphasise the action that we are describing. In some cases, we can form the adverbs of manner adding the ending LY, which means the equivalent in spanish: mente. It is important to place the adverb in the sentence in the correct place in order to make the sentences understandable and coherent.

24. What are adverbs of manner?
25. Form the adverbs with the next adjectives: sad- slow-brave
26. Write a sentence with the previous adverbs.
27. What is the adverb for the adjectives: happy and easy
28. What is the opposite of the adverb: honestly
29. Answer: do you live happily?
30. Answer: how often do you go to a mall?